Send to the Dewan with the D.O. reply received from the Insp.r Genl of Police – He says that Narayana Rao has been recommended as that he has high educational qualifications being a BA + BL, that his services are much superior to those qualifications, that owing to Mr. Leighton taking charge, Mr (Narayana Rao) had to revert to his original grade of Prosecuting Inspector from Railway Insp.r to which he had been appointed by Govt, and that the paucity of highly educated men in the superior grades of the Police necessitates the advancement of such deserving men as Narayana Rao so that they in course of time may be available to fill up higher appointments –

GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE

Bangalore ,

1st September 1903

Dear Mr Nanjundayya ,

With reference to your D.O.letter without date asking me to explain why other Inspectors who are above C.Narain Rao have been proposed to be superseded I beg to inform you that as noted in my official letter in the matter the case of Narain Rao deserved consideration since owing to the sanction of furlough to Inspector Leighton he had to revert to his place of Prosecuting Inspector from the grade of Railway Inspector to which he had been promoted under Government Proceedings No 1678 - 9 dated the 16th April 1903 . Again the Inspectors who are above Narain Rao are G.Norris , Nagayya Naidu , Md Nijamuddin , Kalyanasundram Modaliar and AhobalaRao

Looking to the educational qualification , Narain Rao being a Law Graduate, is superior to the others . In this connection I may quote the case of P.Subba Rao, the present Head Quarter Inspector of Tumkur, who, underGovernment Proceedings No 2738-9 J.247 of the 26th August 1902, was promoted from Rs50/- in the Revenue Department to the present appointment . Apart from this , the officers who are above Narain Rao are , I am perfectly satisfied , far inferior to him in efficiency and I therefore consider it unnecessary to enter into the ---- individual merits or demerits of the officers above named .

The paucity of men of higher education in the superior grades of the Police service necessitates the advancement o such deservibg young men as Narain Rao so that they in cour of time may be available to fill up higher appointments .

Yours sincerely ,

E Thurston

As Narayan Rao is also as satisfactory Inspector, I consider that the General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that the promotion of Mr. Syeduddin Hussein as Assistant Superintendent of Police ordered in Government Proceedings No: J. 1732 dated 5th May 1903, has created a vacancy in the grade of Inspectors on Rs: 150/- rising to Rs: 200/-.

Of the two Inspectors drawing a maximum pay of Rs: 150/- namely S. Leighton and R.S. Nagarkar, the former is senior to the latter; but in view that he was not found quite satisfactory as Inspector in charge of the Bangalore-Nanjangud Railway Police by my predecessor Mr. B.K. — Mr. B.K. Venkatavarada Iyengar, and that he has been on furlough ever since I came to this office, I am not prepared to support his claims for promotion. On the other hand, Inspector Nagarkar, who has been in charge of the City Police, Mysore, is a successful Police Officer and has

The vacancy in the grade of Coffee Inspectors which will be created in case the promotion of Inspector Nagarkar is sanctioned by Government, may be conferred on him.
